News and Notices

NEW PARISH OFFICE AND CHURCH FOR PRIVATE PRAYER will be open from 12 noon – 1.30pm on Monday 15th June and it will be closed on Tuesday 16th June, due to a meeting taking place in NorthReach. Sorry for any inconvenience this causes.

NEW 50 CLUB Congratulations to our winners! May: Graham Williams £50, Patrick Mills £10. June: Sheila Hunter £50, Joyce House £10. Your winnings can be collected from the Office.

ST JOHN'S FELLOWSHIP meet in the Church Hall at 7.30 pm on Thursday 11th June. Our speaker, Miranda Pender will recount the "Intriguing Tale of Norah C James". Norah was the cousin of Miranda's grandfather and was a successful writer of romantic fiction. In 1929 her novel "Sleeveless Errand" was banned under the Obscene Publications Act. It was described as "filthy" and "indecent". Ideas of what is and what is not acceptable have changed greatly over the years and Miranda's talk is most unlikely to offend today's audience. We are promised "a lively entertaining talk which includes two songs and a slide show". Fellowship Members won't want to miss this, and non-members are welcome for a very modest fee.

GARDENING DAY 13TH JUNE The Gardening Group are having another Gardening Day to tidy up the grounds around the Church for the Summer Fayre. Everyone is welcome to come and help for all or part of the morning and there will be plenty of jobs to suit all abilities. We will be based in Northreach, starting at 9.30am and will finish around 12.30pm, with a break for coffee and donuts. If you could let me know if you can come that would help me organise catering. Many thanks Ken Pearce
